TAX PREPARER CHARGED WITH CHEATING THE IRS

PHILADELPHIA – United States Attorney Pat Meehan today announced an Indictment¹ against Thomas L. Green, 61, of Philadelphia, charging him with aiding or assisting in the preparation of false federal income tax returns. According to the indictment, between 2001 and 2005, Green, who owned and operated Green's Tax Service at 2222 N. 29th St., in Philadelphia, prepared tax returns for clients using false and inflated amounts for deductions. He also allegedly directed an employee, Vivian Calhoun, charged elsewhere, to do the same.
